

"Passionate, relatable, and - above all - God honoring, Brian Elder's music cuts through the distracting noise of the world and brings his audience to a place of reverent introspection. Using his unique gifts and talents, and coming from a heartfelt place of first-hand experience, Brian uses music to share a message of God's love, strength and grace. If you're looking for a man of God to sing the message of God that draws you to the heart of God, Brian Elder is your man!"

"Brian crafts music that not only entertains, but also touches the soul."

- Sandra Smith-Doghmi, Red The Luxury Life Magazine

"It was an absolute pleasure having Brian join us on one of our prison tours. The men loved his music and his message. It was evident to our whole team that Brian has a servant's heart and a wonderful gift for using music to connect people to Christ. His songs are packed with uplifting lyrics delivered via unforgettable melodies – all presented with a unique voice and deep conviction. Furthermore, his stage presence demonstrates the traits of a seasoned professional commanding the attention of any audience. We would without hesitation invite Brian to tour with us again. We highly encourage you to consider having Brian Elder bring his ministry to your church, youth ministry, camp, or special event. Your folks will leave singing his songs, meditating on his message and asking when he'll be back!"
